

Notes to your Cromwell Property Trust 12 30 June 2016 Annual Tax Statement

The following notes have been prepared to assist Australian resident individual investors understand their Annual Tax Statement and to prepare their 2016 income tax return.

These notes apply to you if:

- You are an individual Australian tax resident holding your units for the purposes of investment (on capital account), rather than for resale at a profit (on revenue account), and the Capital Gains Tax (“CGT”) provisions as they apply to you; and
- You are using the “Individual Tax Return 2016” and “Tax Return for Individuals (Supplementary Section) 2016” publications or myTax to complete your income tax return.

If you hold your units on revenue account, or are a non resident, a superannuation fund, company, partnership or trust investor you should consult your professional tax adviser for more information.

The following notes have been prepared for general information only and should not be relied upon as tax advice. The information should be read in conjunction with the Australian Taxation Office’s (“ATO’s”) instructions and publications, some of which are listed below. An investment in a managed investment trust can give rise to complex tax issues and each investor’s particular circumstances will be different. As such, we recommend before taking any action based on this document that you consult your professional tax adviser for specific advice in relation to the tax implications.

This document does not constitute financial product or investment advice, and in particular, it is not intended to influence you in making decisions in relation to Cromwell’s financial products.

While every effort is made to provide accurate and complete information, Cromwell does not warrant or represent that the information in these notes is free of errors or omissions or is suitable for your intended use and personal circumstances. Subject to any terms implied by law which cannot be excluded, Cromwell accepts no responsibility for any loss, damage, cost or expense (whether direct or indirect) incurred by you as a result of any error, omission or misrepresentation in the information contained in this information.

These notes have been prepared on the basis of the prevailing taxation laws at 30 June 2016.

The below notes have been prepared to assist you or your tax adviser to complete your 2016 income tax return using your Annual Tax Statement

For tax purposes your investment in units in the Cromwell Property Trust 12 is an investment in a Managed Investment Trust.

Your Annual Tax Statement provides details of any distributions paid to you by Cromwell Property Trust 12 for the period 1 July 2015 to 30 June 2016.

Australian resident taxpayers include in their assessable income their proportionate share of Cromwell Property Trust 12’s taxable income (including any net capital gains). Cromwell Property Trust 12 distributions are included in investor’s assessable income for tax purposes on a present entitlement basis and not on a receipts basis. This means:

- the distribution paid in July 2016 in relation to the June 2016 month is included in your 2016 Annual Tax Statement; and
- the distribution paid in July 2015 in relation to the June 2015 month is not included in your 2016 Annual Tax Statement as it was included in your 2015 Annual Tax Statement.

For tax purposes the distributions from Cromwell Property Trust 12 may comprise separate components including interest, dividends, other Australian taxable income, foreign income, capital gains and tax deferred amounts.

Managed Investment Trust Regime

Cromwell Property Trust 12 qualified as a Managed Investment Trust (“MIT”) for the year ended 30 June 2016 in accordance with Division 275 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (“ITAA 1997”). Cromwell Property Trust 12 made an irrevocable election in 2015 to treat the disposal of its eligible assets as subject to CGT and not giving rise to revenue gains or losses.

On 5 May 2016, the Government passed new legislation establishing a new tax system for MITs including the ability for MITs to elect to be Attribution MITs (“AMITs”). Cromwell Property Trust 12 has exercised its choice not to elect to be an AMIT for the year ended 30 June 2016.

If you are using myTax:

For resident individual holders using myTax to lodge their individual income tax return the following section should be used as a guide to personalise your income tax return to ensure the relevant questions and sections are completed.

If the distribution from your investment in Cromwell Property Trust 12 has been pre-filled for you, check this information against your Annual Tax Statement. If the information has not been pre-filled yet, transpose the amounts from your Annual Tax Statement in “Part A: Summary of 2016 Tax Return (supplementary section) Items” section” to the tax return boxes corresponding to the 2016 Tax Return Labels shown on your Annual Tax Statement.

Taxable Income – Question 13

There is no taxable income included in Cromwell Property Trust 12 distributions in respect of the 2016 financial year.

As such, no amount should be included at Question 13 (Partnerships and Trusts – Non-primary Production Income) this year.

Capital Gains – Question 18

There are no capital gains included in Cromwell Property Trust 12 distributions in respect of the 2016 financial year.

However, you should include at Question 18 any capital gains (or losses) otherwise arising in relation to your units and other investments. This may include capital gains arising from a disposal of your Cromwell Property Trust 12 units or from the tax deferred amounts depleting the cost base of your Cromwell Property Trust 12 units to nil (discussed further below).

Tax Deferred Amounts

It is important that you apply the correct tax treatment to the tax deferred component of your Cromwell Property Trust 12 distributions. While tax deferred amounts are generally not immediately assessable for income tax purposes they will reduce the CGT cost base of your Cromwell Property Trust 12 units.

In addition you make a capital gain (even if you do not sell your units) if the sum of the tax deferred amounts received exceeds the cost base of the units at the end of an income tax year.

If you hold your Cromwell Property Trust 12 units for more than one year you may be able to reduce any capital gain on account by the CGT 50% discount.

Any capital gain arising from tax deferred amounts in excess of your Cromwell Property Trust 12 unit cost base is not included in your Annual Tax Statement, and if applicable you will need to calculate this amount and separately include it at Question 18 of your income tax return. We recommend you refer to the ATO's publications "Guide to Capital Gains Tax 2016" or "Personal Investors Guide to Capital Gains Tax 2015-16" or contact your professional tax adviser for further information.

To obtain copies of these ATO publications please phone the ATO publications distribution service on 1300 720 092, 13 36 77 (for the hearing impaired) or visit the ATO website at www.ato.gov.au and select Print Publications from the right hand menu.

TFN Amount Withheld

Where you have not provided your Tax File Number (TFN), Australian Business Number (ABN) or claimed a relevant exemption, amounts may have been withheld from the taxable components of income distributed to you by Cromwell Property Trust 12 at the rate of 49%. Any tax withheld should be included in Question 13R and offset against the tax payable on your taxable income or refunded.
